

THE HOLY TRINITY

Week of May 31, 2026

Collect for the week: Almighty and everlasting God, You have given us grace to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity by the confession of a true faith and to worship the Unity in the power of the Divine Majesty. Keep us steadfast in this faith and defend us from all adversities; for You, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, live and reign, one God, now and forever.

Old Testament: Genesis 1:1–2:4a
Second Reading: Acts 2:14a, 22-36
Holy Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

Next Sunday's Readings: Hosea 5:15–6:6; Romans 4:13-25; Matthew 9:9-13

Hymn for the Week: “Glory Be to God the Father” LSB 506

From the Old Testament

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:1

Applying God's Word to our lives: The God who made us His own children in Holy Baptism, having revealed His great love in the Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ, also in His written Word, the Bible, instructs us in the most wonderful truths, giving us knowledge and wisdom for living. Genesis 1:1 teaches us that God is the creator of all things. Ponder this daily—and offer God your praise!

From the Second Reading

Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. Acts 2:33

Applying God's Word to our lives: See how Peter bears witness to the work of each of the three Persons of the Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Rejoice to know that the Holy Trinity is present and constantly active in your life, through His means of grace bestowing forgiveness and through His daily provision supplying all your needs. Glory be to the Holy Trinity, our God!

From the Holy Gospel

Behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. Matthew 28:20b

Applying God's Word to our lives: This beloved statement of Jesus is just that—a statement. Do not punctuate this blessed promise with a question mark. In our most trying times, the Suffering Servant, our risen and victorious Savior, to whom all authority is given, He is with us—no question about it!
